Duntroon to Dili is a compelling story of a man who has committed his life to the service of others: to his nation as a combat Soldier, Army and Police Chaplain, to God as an ordained Deacon in the Catholic Church and to the people of Timor-Leste and many other countries as a spiritual leader, humanitarian and man of action. Dramatic experiences in the Iran-Iraq war saw him develop Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder. Gary chronicles his own struggle and management of this illness, and his parallel ministry to other veterans similarly affected. His experience and understanding of the comprehensive physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual strategies that he has employed, should help all who read this to understand and deal better with this condition.
